christian awareness council

pots n' plants for the elderly, the blood drive, v.a. hospital volunteers, one can one meal, tutoring on campus...all these were just a few of the projects that were initiated this year. through the christian awareness council. uniting students and faculty to express in sevice and celebration their religious convictions is the basic objective of the c.a.c. which is directed by sr. eileen.

involvement and concern

many students here at mercy spend alot of time and energy in volunteer service within the san francisco community. some students are involved on their own, but many others are involved through the involvement and concern class which is offered by the religion department. working in convelescent hospitals, centers for the handicapped, tutoring and coaching at nearby elementary schools, and serving at martin de porres are just a few of the activities these students are involved in bringing help to others and learning to appreciate life more themselves.

throughout the year we try to combine enjoyment and service within a latin american theme. we enjoy celebrating all the different latin holidays and donate the money we raise to the latin american poor. we are proud of our culture and we share ourselves and our heritage with those around us.

hardly a day passes that one does not hear cries similar to those of the tutonic wars issuing forth from the courts on the back campus. the volleyball, tennis, basketball, swimming, bowling, and cross-country running teams would lead one to believe mercy is a warm up camp for the next olympics. but really it's just fun and the enjoyment of a good game.

this year's varsity and junior varsity teams excelled in crafty techniques in volleying and outrageously powerful serves. but most importantly, it was hours of long, tiring practice after school which gave them their lead. the junior varsity came in no. 2 in the league while the varsity team raged on to place numero uno.
